FAQS:

What is Dimensions Show Choir?

Dimensions Show Choir is a mixed ensemble of 45-56 singers which performs pop, Broadway, jazz, and/or contemporary tunes enhanced with costumes, choreography, and staging.

The choir is accompanied by a show band. Performances include home performances and competitions. Membership in Concert Choir, A Cappella, OR Dowling Catholic Singers is required.

When are rehearsals?

Monday 3:30-6:30pm and Thursday: 7:15am-8:00am

There will be a summer choreography camp which will be MANDATORY for all accepted students. July 15th-18th from 10:00am-5:00pm. Please contact Mrs. Hughes with questions and/or conflicts.

What about contests?

Competitions are held on four Saturdays during the second semester (Jan-March).

Tentative performance/competition dates to block off include:

11/24 1/18 1/25 2/1 2/15 3/1 3/9

Can I participate in athletics and show choir?

Yes! We always have several students in other athletics such as swimming, volleyball, cross country, basketball, and cheer. Athletic and other conflicts will be worked out with the director on an individual basis.

Is dance background required?

No! Many students who participate in show choir have no previous dance experience. Come and try the audition choreography and you'll see that it is attainable with some practice.

What is involved in a show choir audition?

1. Small group performance of learned choreography
2. Singing of "My Country Tis of Thee"

Audition workshops will be held in the choir room at DCHS before and after school beginning April 29th at 3:30pm. Attendance at Monday's workshop is advised in order to receive all of the tryout choreography instruction and information. Other workshop sessions will be held throughout the week. Attend as many as you want/need. Audition sign ups will be posted outside of the choir room, and auditions will be held Friday, May 3rd after school.
