Covenant of Trust between Parents and St. Theresa Catholic School

“Jesus said to his disciples, ‘Let the children come to me; do not prevent them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. Amen, I say to you, whoever does not accept the kingdom of God like a child will not enter it.’ Then he embraced them and blessed them, placing his hands on them.” (Mark 10:14-16).

At baptism, parents accept the responsibility of forming their child in the practice of the faith. “Catholic parents also have the duty and right of choosing those means and institutions through which they can provide more suitably for the Catholic education of their children” (Canon 793.1).

Catholic school personnel partner with the family in proclaiming and witnessing as disciples to the life and teachings of Jesus Christ. They assist parents in fulfilling their responsibility as the primary religious educators of their children.

Parents at St. Theresa Catholic School are aware of this vocational call from God, and in response, commit themselves by word and example to be the first and best teachers of their children in the faith.

Practically, this means parents will:

- Understand that the authentic teachings of Jesus as taught by the Catholic Church, will be part of their child’s education and formation.
- To the best of their ability, respect the teachings of the Church and help their children respect the Church and its teachings.
- Commit to conversing frequently with their children about God and include prayer in their daily home life.
- Participate in and cooperate with the Catholic school in programs that enable them, respectively, to take an active role in the religious education of their children, including sacramental preparation for Catholic children.
- Support the moral and social teaching of the Catholic Church to ensure consistency between home and school.
- Teach their children by word and example to express compassion and concern for the needs of others.
- Practice stewardship of time, talent, and treasure, and meet their financial responsibilities in support of the school and parish.

St. Theresa Catholic School enters a relationship of trust with each school family. The Parent/Student Handbook provides the school’s framework for this trusting relationship by setting out policies and regulations for the orderly, safe, and effective spiritual and academic formation of children.

By completing my/our permissions in JMC, I/we hereby acknowledge that I/we have read this handbook and will abide by these regulations, that I/we have had an opportunity to ask questions about its contents, and that I/we will fulfill my responsibilities as the primary educator of my/our child as outlined in this covenant of trust.
